FOREWORD

As the years pass our school memories will become dearer to us, and we shall look back on our high school experiences with increasing pleasure. The staff has endeavored to make this Annual an enduring remembrance of those things which we wish to keep: the school dances, the football and basketball games, the various organizations to which we belonged, the faculty, our school friends. If this book serves to recall to our minds those happy incidents of our school days, our purpose will have been accomplished. It is also our hope, however, that this yearbook will not only serve as a remembrance, but will also furnish a means of praising those people who made our high school years memorable to us.

DEDICATION

Memories and acquaintances are wonderful assets, especially when they are woven into a pattern of school life that will always be remembered.

One of the most outstanding acquaintances of the class of 1936 is Mr. W. A. Rider, commercial teacher of the Senior High School. Since we entered this building as Sophomores, Mr. Rider has helped us as a class in all of our undertakings. His cheery smile and kindly manner were an inspiration to the many pupils who asked him for guidance.

Selected by the class to be a class sponsor during the Junior year, he proved invaluable as an aide at that time. His work on various committees helped to make the Junior-Senior Prom the success that it was. As one of our sponsors in the Senior year, he again was an interested benefactor, giving counsel and guidance to the officers in class problems.

But not only as a class sponsor has his influence been felt. His teaching in the commercial department has been highly beneficial to all concerned.

In recognition of his work for both class and school welfare, we, the class of 1936, wish to bestow upon him the highest honor that is in our power to grant.

We dedicate this annual, the Hi-Echo for 1936, to Mr. W. A. Rider.

OUR SCHOOL

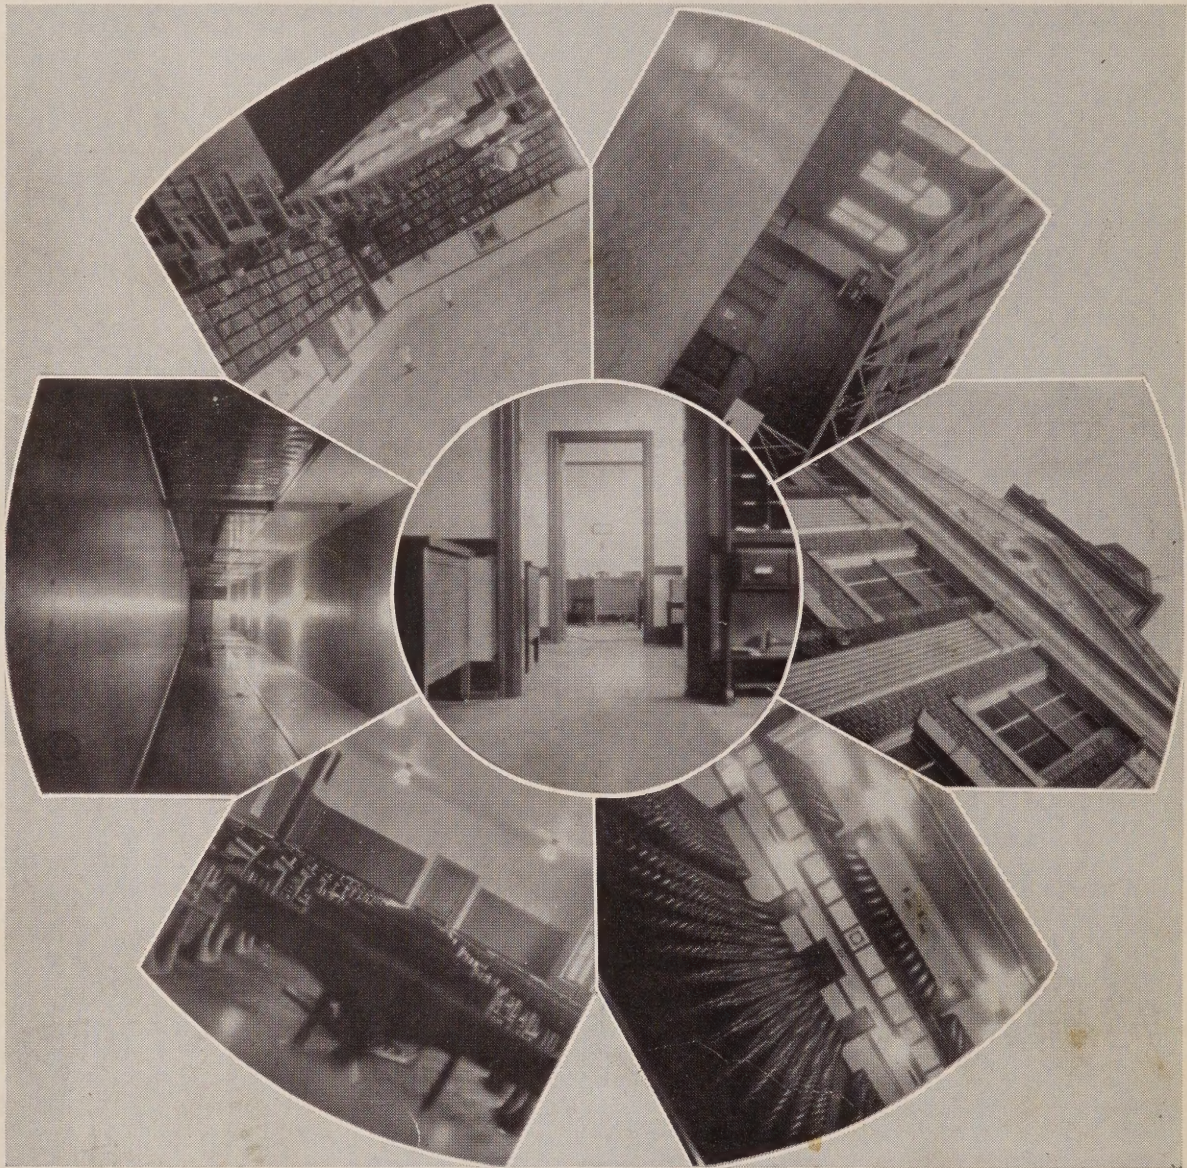

In the superintendent's office hangs a framed document which represents the beginning of our Senior High School. It is our charter, dated December 16, 1929. Since that time our school has seen many improvements.

The music department has progressed rapidly. In 1929, the band was made up of only twenty-four members; this year there are about sixty uniformed musicians. Now there is a vested chorus instead of two glee clubs. In 1929 there were only eighteen in the orchestra, and the school owned no instruments.

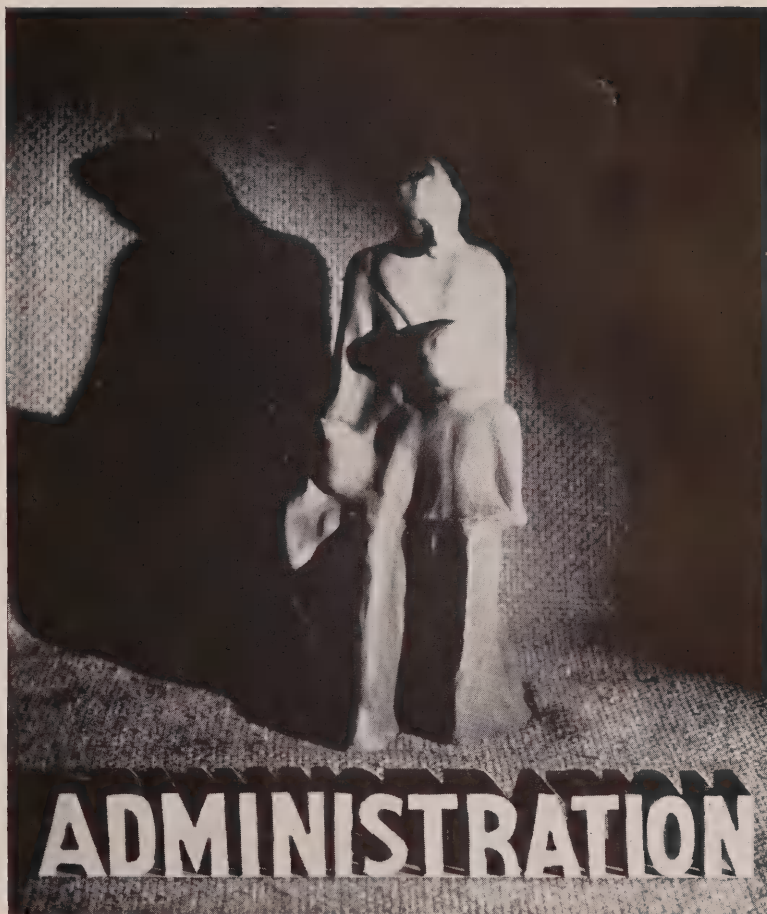

With the new building has come an increased interest in clubs and social activities. Dramatics have prospered so well that now there is a very large, active organization. Debate and public speaking clubs have become important parts of our school life. The Art club has grown and expanded into many new fields; metal craft, puppets, and weaving. The G. A. A. has proved to be a great success as have several new organizations. The literary branch of our school has been rounded out by the publication of our magazine, "The Gray Griffin".

The rooms have improved as they have become adapted to their respective subjects. They have assumed that certain air which accompanies those subjects and instructors. Bookcases overflowing with references, bulletin board displays, and pictures show the improvements which have pervaded our institution with time and the devotion of individuals.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

W. B. James (deceased), C. H. Young, R. B. Waugh, W. H. Gernert
S. S. Leiter absent when picture was taken

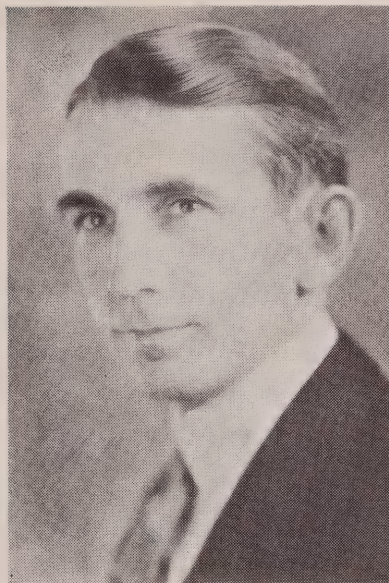

This year, through the interested efforts of the Board of Education, the students of Bowling Green High School again have concluded an enjoyable and profitable school term. Although these men receive no material compensation for their valuable time, it is through their work that our school maintains its high scholastic and extra-curricular activities.

By the careful business management of this group of men, the school has been able to run as efficiently as ever. All activities have been continued as before, and the same highly trained instructors have been provided.

The outstanding project of this year was the complete repainting of every room in the Senior High School building including the halls, the auditorium, and the gymnasium. This renovation has given the entire high school a new and neat appearance. The board also provided a press box in the stadium at our athletic field and greatly improved the track.

The Board of Education is made up of the following members: Wm. B. James, President; Carl H. Young, Vice President; W. H. Gernert, Clerk; and S. S. Leiter and R. B. Waugh.

To William B. James will go the never-dying gratitude of this class for the untiring attention he had given to the welfare of this institution in his position of President of the Board of Education and citizen of Bowling Green.

A. B. CONKLIN
Superintendent of Schools

In his dual capacity of Principal of the Bowling Green Senior High School and Superintendent of the Bowling Green Schools, Mr. A. B. Conklin has steadily risen in the estimation of the students. During his years as Superintendent, Mr. Conklin was looked upon by the students as a vague power behind the throne, but with his coming to the Senior High School as Principal, students have had the privilege of personal contact with him. Under his efficient administration, students have experienced many changes for their betterment which have made the past school year an experience to look back upon with happy memories.

OFFICE FORCE

Every school, to be efficiently run needs an efficient office force, and we may feel justly proud of ours. Mrs. Box, who is secretary to the superintendent and the school board, and Isca Mae Harmon have been in the employ of the school for several years. This year, two new members were added to the staff in the persons of Mrs. Merna Harned and Mary Jane Robinson. The former has charge of the N. Y. A. and the latter is a general assistant.

ENGINEERS

Visitors to our school have practically always expressed their surprise when informed that this school is seven years old. Most people are misled concerning the number of years it has been giving service because of the excellent condition in which it has been kept.

LIBRARIANS

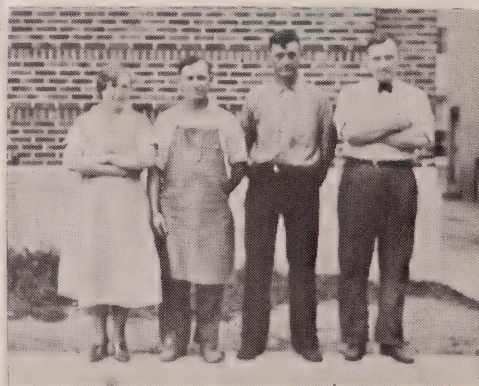

One of the finest assets of our school is the library which is at the disposal of the students as an invaluable aid to them in their school work. Miss Halleck is in charge of the library and is well known to the student body for her splendid work. Miss Wentz and Miss Simmons, as assistant librarians also have become quite well known for the efficiency with which they carry on their work.

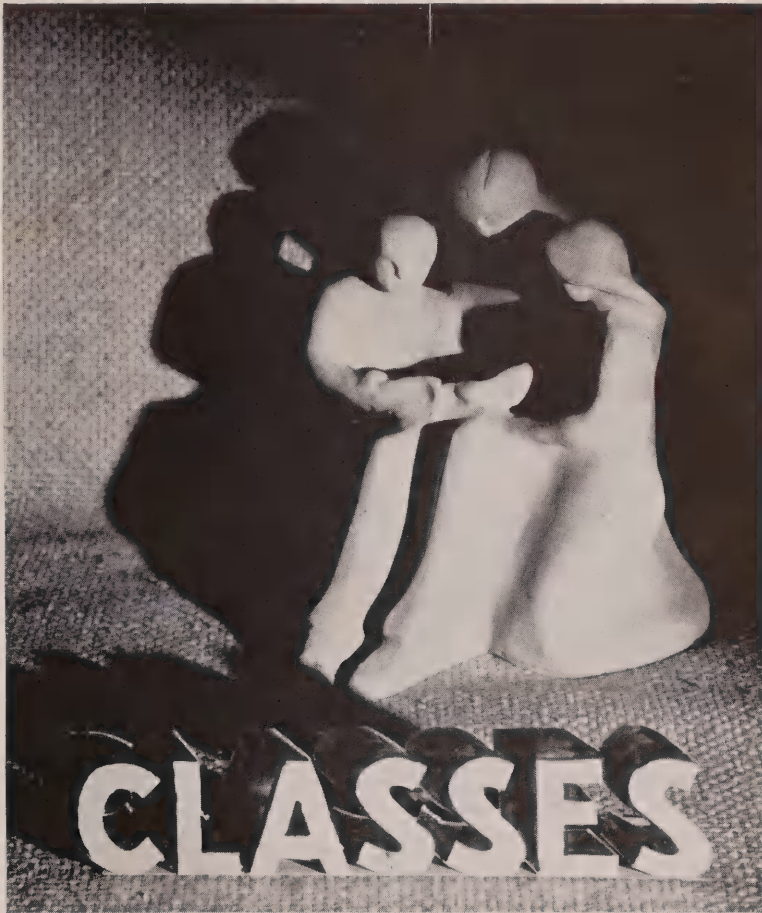

Misses Harned, Robinson, Harmon, Mrs. Box

BUS DRIVERS

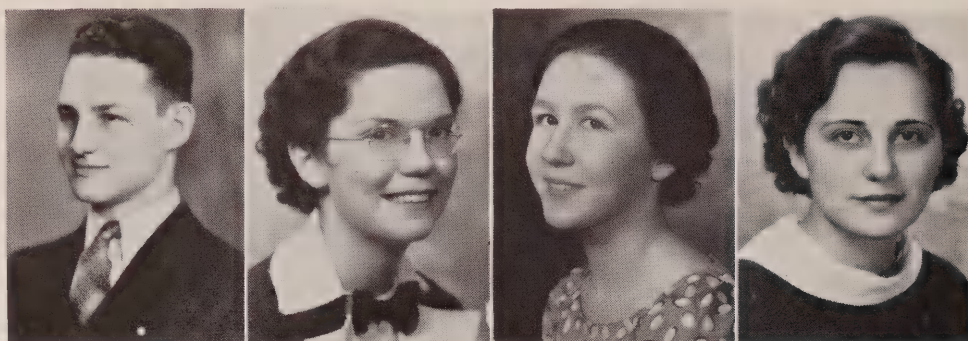

The eight busses used by our school system serve as a means of conveyance for approximately 335 children. The total miles covered daily by the busses for one round trip averages about 153 miles. These facts are enough to prove to us the invaluable service which these men give for our convenience.

OUR SPONSORS

W. A. RIDER

F. G. SKIBBIE

M. M. MERCER

Mr. F. G. Skibbie as director of our Senior play gave his generous and untiring services, helping immeasurably to make "The Charm School" a huge success. Mr. M. M. Mercer aided our class in one of its biggest undertakings. His excellent counsel and guidance have made this annual a triumph of the year.

Mr. W. A. Rider has been our class sponsor for the last two years. Much of our success has been due to his wise advice and never failing interest in the problems of our class.

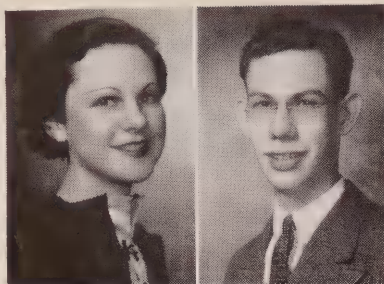

We, the graduating class of 1936, wish to thank our dependable sponsors who have played such a vital part in the progress of our class by giving unreservedly of their time, patience, and thought.

THE 1936 SENIOR MEMORIAL

The memorial chosen by this year's class was an automatic light switch. In choosing this memorial the members of the class considered the extra work which will be saved those individuals, who, heretofore, always made the rounds in turning the lights on and off.

They also took into consideration the helpfulness to the pupils of such an addition. Between classes, unilluminated corridors not only hamper sight into those dark lockers but they also dampen good spirits. The lights will automatically switch on and off between classes and before and after school.

The switch is operated by the master clock in the Superintendent's office. This works on the same system that rings the class bells.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

So that a class may come to the end of a school year with a successful record, it is absolutely necessary that officers and sponsors work collectively and also individually for one end, the good of the class which has given them their responsibility.

As facts indicate, the officers and sponsors of the 1936 Junior class have filled their offices capably and conscientiously so that the Senior Class of 1937 may look forward to the coming year with high anticipations as a result of this year's management.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

MILDRED WOLFE BARBARA AVERY HILDA FOOS

Under the guidance of R. H. Rubrake and L. E. Angene, sponsors, the Sophomore class of 145 members has had an unusually prosperous year. Through the generous efforts of members of the class and Mr. M. M. Mercer, an Amateur Hour was presented in February. The response to the program was highly satisfactory and it brought eighteen dollars into the Sophomore treasury. This was the first successful financial venture a Sophomore class has accomplished in several years.

Members of the class have been active in various school activities including football, basketball, track, tennis, golf, and various clubs.

This year forty members of the class were chosen to assist at the Junior-Senior Prom and proved to be very capable.

THE NINTH GRADE

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Bowling Green High School has for its proving ground one of the best schools in the state. This year's Ninth Grade graduating class has been exceedingly active in developing the three phases of life—the physical, the social, and the mental.

Under the guiding hand of Mr. Cook, the Junior High School, and particularly the Ninth Grade, has produced basketball and football teams which, although handicapped by small players, were two of the best drilled and hardest fighting teams ever to represent the school. Several members of the Ninth Grade also practiced a lot at the track and will no doubt make future track stars for Bowling Green High School.

This year two dances were held by the Ninth Graders. One was sponsored by the girls and the other by the boys. Finding that some of the students didn't dance, several periods were devoted to the sole purpose of teaching dancing.

The Ninth Grade was divided into two sections, the boys and the girls. Election of officers was held each semester in each section and in this way, twelve boys and girls were able to serve as leaders. Each section held weekly meetings to transact business or to enjoy an outside speaker or program prepared by various members of the class. Every pupil was able to enjoy the fellowship of some club as these clubs, nine in number, offered a variety of choices. Junior High School organizations consisted of Chorus, Junior High School Orchestra, Junior High School Band, Scout Troop, Rifle club, Leisure Time club, Art Metal club, Puppet club and the Dramatics club.

This year thirteen members of the Ninth Grade were chosen by the faculty as the charter members of the Bowling Green Junior High School National Honor Society. In this way the students with the outstanding records in scholarship, leadership, service and character were honored for their good work.

The concluding activity of the class was the Ninth Grade graduation exercise at which pupils received their diplomas.

Now this class is embarking on a new and interesting phase of life, namely, the Senior High School years which will be climaxed by another graduation.

WILLIAM B. HAMM

Athletic Director

We were indeed proud to have had in our high school for the past year an athletic director as capable and efficient as Coach Hamm. Because of his distinctive personality, ease, and dignity, Mr. Hamm has made a host of friends in Bowling Green.

We feel that his ultimate success was due to his likable personality, his experience, and his sportsman-like attitude in his round of activities.

CLAYTON COOK

Director of Physical Education

Director of Physical Education Clayton Cook has been with us for but a short period of time, but he has already started a track team, which in its second year, has already been able to take the county championship. Cook's physical education program of written tests and a knowledge of skills in various branches of athletics has been popular among the students. His personality has made Coach Cook a well known individual among the students and we hope that he many develop next year's track team in the same proportion that he improved this year's track team over last year's.

FRED MARSH

Assistant Coach

Being a great athlete in his high school and college days and a keen student of the game, no better assistant coach could have been found this year than "Freddy" Marsh.

Fred showed real value as an assistant coach when he helped develop one of the greatest all-tournament basketball teams ever to don suits for Bee Gee.

FOOTBALL

1935 GRID SQUAD

NORTH BALTIMORE

1. The Bee Gee Bobcats came out this year with plenty of fighting spirit and clean sportsmanship. Our game with the North Baltimore Tigers was the first victory of the season. The '35 Bobcats clad in new scarlet and grey football suits, raced down the field and defeated the hard playing Tigers 39-0. Coach Hamm's gridiron men displayed excellent teamwork in shutting out their ancient rivals in the season's opener.

SYLVANIA

2. Bee Gee Goal line still uncrossed as Sylvania falls 20-0. Bruce Hamm's Cats successfully passed their second opponent of the season here Friday, by scoring a shut-out victory over a determined Sylvania eleven. The Scarlet and Grey's victory was marred by the loss of Stanley Yoder, sophomore fullback, who suffered a fractured leg. Coach Hamm was now faced with the task of rebuilding his entire offense as most of his plays were centered around this powerful back.

FINDLAY

3. After the two overwhelming victories the Bobcats were defeated by Findlay 13-0. This was the only game of the season when our gridiron warriors played at night under light; however, this game left a mark upon the team. "Chuck" Schooner, the captain of the '35 squad ended his career. "Chuck" was quarantined because of sickness.

Forced with the task of building a new backfield, Coaches Hamm and Marsh drilled the squad harder and later hoping to defeat Defiance. The team worked perfectly and was full of vigor but the locals were defeated by a score of 26-13.

LIMA CENTRAL

4. Outweighed 20 pounds to the man and using an all Sophomore backfield the Scarlet and Grey football team put up a stubborn defense before finally bowing to the Central Dragons 20-0. This was the only team to hold a three touchdown margin on the Bobcats last season.

NAPOLEON

5. Displaying their best brand of football of the season the local lads held a great Napoleon team scoreless for the first half of the game before finally succumbing to a 21-7 score. With the ball on Napoleon 1 ft. line Farrison intercepted a Bobcat pass and raced 100 yards for a touchdown. A fumbled kick off gave the Corporals their second touchdown and a third came by a great 35 yd. run by Farrison. All three came in 3 minutes time. The Bobcats then came back and scored climaxing an 80 yd. drive down the field.

GENOA

6. Bobcats suffered first loss on home gridiron when Genoa won a hard fought contest, 14-7. The locals scored first after carrying the ball 65 yds. without losing it. A long pass by Avery tied the score just before the half ended. A great run by Avery won the contest in the last quarter.

FOSTORIA

7. The big game of the year arrived. The fans packed the big stadium to capacity. Fostoria was victorious 20-6. The Bobcats were nervous and made numerous costly errors. They thrice repelled the Redmen inside their own 10 yd. line in the first quarter. They were unable to stop the aerial attack of the visitors and found themselves trailing 20-0 as the last quarter arrived. A great run by Gernert of 65 yds. after completing Smith's pass on his own thirty-five electrified the home fans and enabled the Bobcats to score on their ancient rivals.

PERRYSBURG

8. Perrysburg, the first team to ever play Bowling Green, came last on the schedule. The Bobcats again marched for a touchdown in the first quarter. An intercepted pass enabled the Yellow Jack-ets to score and lead 7-6 at the half.

The Scarlet and Grey warriors unleashed a furious offense in the second half to score in the third quarter and carry the ball to their opponents 3 yd. line as the game ended, with a 13-7 Bobcat victory.

GERNERT—"Dick" was one of the mainstays of the team this year. His ability to catch passes and cover punts featured every game.

UHLMAN—This was "Freddie's" first year out and he was certainly no disappointment. Although rather small to play fullback, he made up for his small size by his aggressive spirit.

YODER—"Stan", our big Bobcat fullback, had the misfortune of having his leg broken early in the season.

HALLECK—John was a Sophomore and one of the smallest men on the team, but his defense was especially good.

CARTER—"Jerry" was the Bobcat's hardest driving guard. Many an opponent was stopped by "Jerry's" hard tackling.

BUCHMAN—"Tom" is the captain-elect for next year. His hard blocking and fierce tackling make him feared by all opponents.

LOWELL—"Bob" was one of the hardest fighters on the team, both offensively and defensively. "Bob's" position will be hard to fill next year.

FOSTER—"Dick" was one of the fastest men on the team. Playing a halfback position, his hard driving gained many a yard.

SMITH—Harry was the passer on the team. His accurate passing made possible several Bobcat threats.

SIMONDS—"Jack" was the smallest man to make a letter. His elusiveness and quickness gave him an advantage over his opponent.

WALLACE—"Ed's" blocking and tackling and covering punts left little to be desired.

AMOS—"Dick" is our only four year letterman. "Dick's" experience helped.

GRAMES—This was big Hugh's first year out. He will be back.

ROTHER—Three years of experience made "Bill" a dependable man when the going was tough. Rothe was a center.

BELL—"Don" was the biggest man on the team. Don will be back two more years.

SHEFFLER—"Jim" was a redoubtable battler at all times. He will be missed next year.

BELLEVUE

1. Bee Gee Bobcats beat Bellevue in season's opener. The Bobcats' shooting was somewhat ragged, but they displayed excellent early season form in their pass work. "Ed" Wallace opened the game with the first 1935 basket. Stacy soon followed with an under-basket shot. The locals trimmed the Bellevue regulars 27-15 and the Bee Gee reserves whipped Bellevue reserves 31-18.

PEMBERVILLE

2. The varsity and reserves chalked up their second victories of the season when they defeated their Wood County rivals, Pemberville. Bobcats won by 45-25 while reserves marked up 32-25 victory.

WAUSEON

3. Wauseon proved no match for fast Bee Gee's. The Bobcats unloosed a barrage of 24 field goals and 4 fouls for a total of 52 points, while setting up a tight man-to-man defense that allowed the Indians only 13 points.

WAITE

4. Bobcats down Waite for their fourth straight double victory. The largest crowd so far this year filled the gymnasium to its capacity to witness this annual classic. The varsity triumphed by a score of 22-14 while reserves went on a scoring rampage to win 49-20.

FOSTORIA

5. With the offense and defense collapsing in a very rough game on Fostoria's small floor, the Scarlet and Grey team lost their first contest of the season

32-22. However, the Bee Gee Reserves continued their victorious march by walloping Fostoria's reserves 34-22.

Regis Echle

TIFFIN JUNIOR ORDER

6. It was a greatly improved Basketball team that defeated the highly touted Tiffin Jr. Order quint 32-17 to get back into the winning column. The reserves were less fortunate and met their first defeat of the season at the hand of Tiffin reserves by the score 26-20.

NORTH BALTIMORE

7. Bee Gee's reserve team swamped North Baltimore as regulars rested on the bench. During the North Baltimore game Coach Hamm used all second string men to win 25-13. The regular cats were saving themselves for the DeVilbiss game to be played the following night. This was to be the toughest game of the season.

DEVILBISS

8. Undefeated DeVilbiss team handed first reverse of season. One of the most spectacular games of the season was recorded on the high school's books by Coach Hamm. The great DeVilbiss High school cage quintet came to town boasting of seven victories and no defeats. They looked to be sure of their last year's city championship. The large gymnasium was packed. The Bobcats got away to a good lead and outplayed the Big City boys to a score 37-30.

LIMA DRAGONS

9. Bobcats defeat Lima Dragons 41-20. The Dragons put up a good fight but were badly beaten. During the half, the Bowling Green High School's tumbling team gave a thrilling exhibition of their skill. Music was furnished throughout the game by the Senior High School's Band, under the direction of Mr. Winchester Richard. Jimmie Falls, the one and only band leader, gave many startling exhibitions, with his swinging baton, which brought many cheers from the crowd.

NAPOLEON

10. Bobcats defeated Napoleon 37-19. The varsity continued its sensational ball playing despite the handicaps of Napoleon's low-beamed floor. The Scarlet and Grey team maneuvered through their defense and scored all points within foul line.

Richard Wilke

BUCYRUS

11. Bee Gee Cats lose game at Bucyrus. The locals took their second defeat of the season from Bucyrus to the score 32-25. The game was slow and rough with Bobcats considerably off-form. Dick Gernert, first string forward, retired from game with sprained ankle, Wayne Hickle took his place and played a nice game.

LIBERTY CENTER

12. Locals swamped Liberty Center 42-25. Liberty Center was the 11th victim of the Bowling Green cagers this season. Using a fast passing attack and a good defense set-up made the Scarlet and Grey team look far different than they did when they lost to Bucyrus last week.

Wilkie and Echle shared scoring honors with 25 points.

FINDLAY

13. Bowling Green cagers whipped Findlay 28-19. Reserves lost by a close margin 20-18. This victory was the 12th in 14 games for the locals and also kept their home record undefeated.

DEFIANCE

14. Bobcats lost to Defiance 33-23. Bee Gee reserves continue to win by a score 24-21. The game was rough and fast, nevertheless both teams played good ball. Bee Gee's team was weakened in last quarter when star forward Gernert was removed from game on personal fouls.

PERRYSBURG

15. Varsity downed Perrysburg in fast thriller. The locals led by 10 points at the end of the first quarter and the game looked cinched, but Perrysburg men thought differently and they went on a scoring spree and led the locals by 12 points at the half.

It was a determined band of cagers that returned to the floor after the half. Passing and shooting, with the same accuracy which had permitted them to leave the court victoriously in nine other consecutive home games, they completely out-classed their northern neighbors and won 38-36.

BOBCATS WIN DISTRICT TOURNEY

After decisively winning the class A County Championship, the Bobcats invaded Defiance to gather more laurels.

Bobcats—31 Van Wert—25

Van Wert came to the tourney with a highly touted team. They had recently played Lima Central an overtime game on Lima's floor. They were the Bobcats' first opponent. This marked the third consecutive year that these two teams had drawn each other. B. G. won the first game by two points and the second one by three. This year's game saw another victory for B. G. The Scarlet and Grey boys piled up a 12 point lead in the first quarter and were never in danger. Some excellent one hand shooting by the Cagers enabled them to stage a last minute rally which fell seven points short of tying and the Bobcats were on their way.

Bobcats—64 Paulding—10

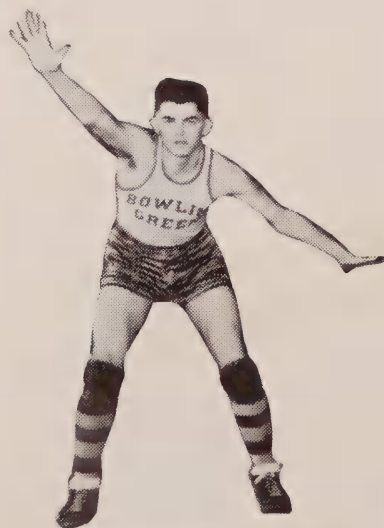

The entire squad was used in an effort to keep down the score in this game but to no avail. The inexperienced team from Paulding proved no match for the Bowling Green Cagers and the Cat onslaught 64-10. The B. G. reserves played the biggest part of this game and did the greater part of the scoring.

Bobcats—49 Liberty Center—33

With the return of their tall center Liberty Center trounced Napoleon in their early tourney game, and looked so good the experts picked them to put up a great battle against the Bobcats. The Cats turned on their early game heat, however, and were never behind. Their passwork in this contest caused many fans to predict a district championship for them. They led at the half, 21-10 and coasted out with all of the regulars resting for the final game with Defiance.

Bowling Green—35 Defiance—25

The great night arrived. Beating Defiance on their floor was no easy task. Especially when their first six men were all Seniors and had played together for four years. In characteristic style, the Bobcats took an early lead. Their passing and shooting was beautiful to behold. They displayed such an air-tight defense that the Defiance team was unable to work the ball within scoring distance. The Bobcats led from 10 to 15 points through the entire game. They were cheered on by several hundred loyal fans who made the big drive despite the ice and high water. Immediately after the game a beautiful trophy was presented to the Bobcats, and each player received a gold watch charm from the Ohio High School Athletic Association.

RESUME OF THE 1936 TRACK SEASON

NAPOLEON

The initial meet of the year found the Bobcats pitted against Napoleon, at whose hands they had suffered a 24 point defeat last year. The Napoleonetes on their own field again proved too much for the 'Cats, but this time the issue was in doubt until the last event had been run off. The score of 57 to 52 was proof in itself that the track caliber of Bowling Green had already improved over last year's—our first track year after a lapse of several seasons.

TONTOGANY

Tontogany proved no match for the Bobcat cinder pounders. While the invaders captured more firsts than the locals, the Bowling Green points were garnered by our well balanced team which captured the majority of seconds and thirds. The final score was 59 to 41.

BRYAN

In the rain and mud at Bryan, the Bobcats ran in a meet which was more or less of a farce. Suffering from handicaps offered by poor locker room facilities, pouring rain, dirt track, and unfavorable temperature, the 'Cats lost by a count of 75½ to 15¼.

A few of the events in which Bowling Green was comparatively strong were omitted because of the weather conditions.

LIBERTY CENTER

Eighty-one and a half to 27½ was the overwhelming count by which the 'Cats swamped Liberty Center. Our tracksters captured eleven firsts to the invader's two firsts.

In this meet the locals put on the pressure to avenge the Bryan defeat and more than succeeded.

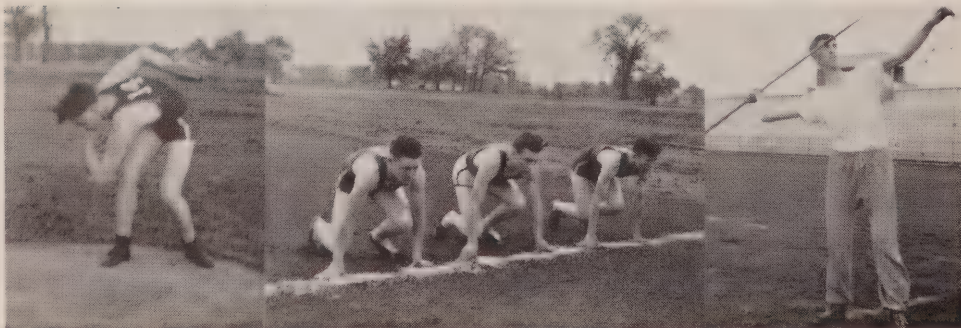

First Row—Simonds, Shawaker, Lowell, Lambert, Woodbury, Shelton, Stoots, Onofrio
Second Row—Alexander, Hunter, Smith, Lahey, Bell, Sanders, Richards

PEMBERVILLE

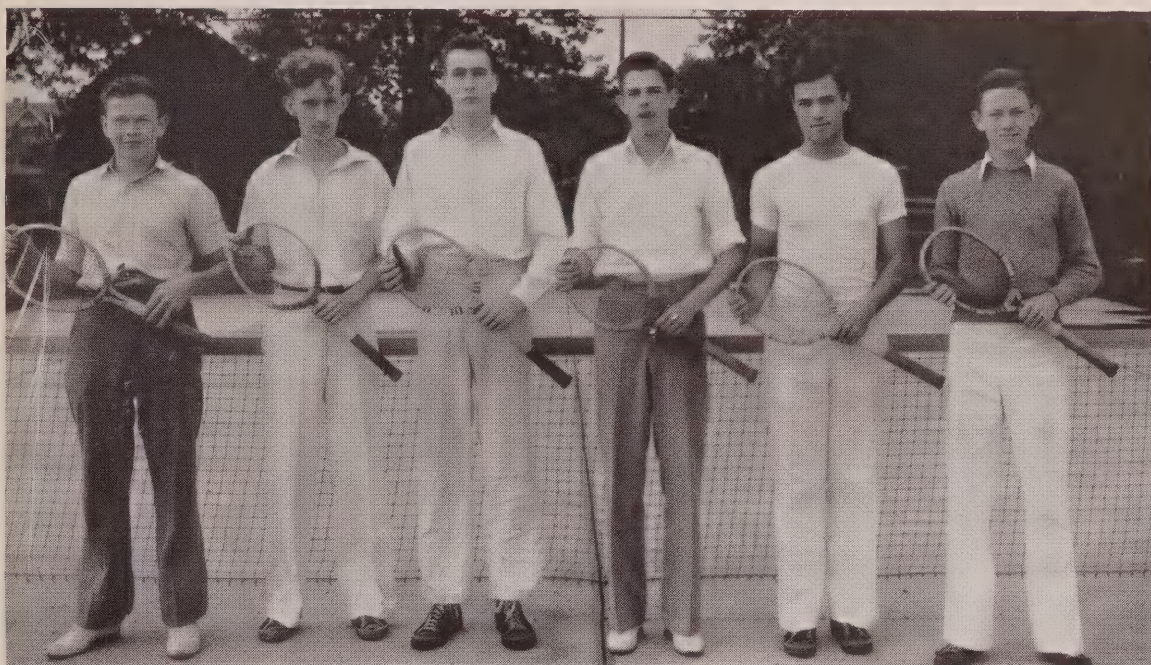

"Wood County Track Champions" is the title which was acquired by the Scarlet and Grey thinclads when they romped to a 60% to 48½ victory over Pemberville. The invaders had previously been considered champions of Wood county because of previous wins over other teams of this county. However, with this victory over the county champions, the Bobcats proved themselves the best track team in Wood county.

1937 PROSPECTS

This year with the graduation of Bob Lowell, dash, relay, and broad jump man; Waldo Shawaker, dash and relay man; Jack Angerman, 440 man; and Wayne Woodbury 880 man, we will lose four members of the track team, and their leaving will leave a hole in the Bee Gee track team, but several lettermen will be back, along with a number of experienced members of the squad to make our third year more successful than either 1935 or 1936. The prospective candidates for next year's team are: Loyd Shelton, mile relay; Thomas Lahey, discus, high jump, 880, and mile relay; Edward Lambert, 440 and relay; James Onofrio, mile and relay; Don Bell, shot put; Harry Smith, shot put, discus, and javelin; Richard Gernert, relay, discus, javelin, and dash; Nelson Alexander, mile; Richard Stoots, 440 and 880; Alan Richards, high jump and pole vault; Ralph Spears, shot put and discus; Jim Hunter, broad jump; and Jack Simons, 440.

TENNIS

Dunipace, Wilcox, Siebens, Wilke, Amos, Mason

This year, as in the past three years, the Bobcats have proved an outstanding net combination. This is the fourth consecutive year that the Bowling Green tennis squad has sent representatives to the state tournament and the third consecutive year that Bowling Green entered players in both the doubles and singles at state.

The tennis team easily overcame all opposition in netters with other schools, never dropping more than one point a match.

At the district tournament the Bowling Green entries again came through to win with Wilke in the singles and Wilcox and Siebens in the doubles.

Two weeks later the netters went down to the state tournament where they met with grief. Wilke met the scrappy and clever Bobby Fought from Columbus in the first round and was eliminated 6-1, 6-1. The doubles combination of Siebens and Wilcox survived the first round by beating Zanesville, but were unfortunate enough to meet the potential 1936 state doubles champions, Cincinnati Purcell, in the quarter finals to lose 6-3, 6-2.

The 1936 tennis schedule is as follows:

	B. G.	Opp.
Napoleon (here)	4	1
Bluffton (here)	5	0
Napoleon (there)	4	1
Defiance (there)	4	1
Findlay (there)	5	0
Scott (here)	4	1

Mr. L. O. Willhite will have to replace his first four men next year. Don Mason will be the only letterman back, but other members of the squad showed signs of promise for 1937 so that Bowling Green will probably figure prominently in North-western Ohio tennis circles again next year.

GOLF

Rubrake, Sams, Sanders, Maas, Gernert, Southwick, Halleck, Harris, Kidd

1937 PROSPECTS

Bowling Green's prospects for the '37 season are sunny. Captain Richard Gernert will again be back with Kenneth Kidd as his partner. Both of these boys have had two previous years of experience on the squads of '35 and '36.

The third, fourth, fifth and sixth men will be selected according to their qualifications next spring. The boys who will probably fill these four open positions are John Halleck, experienced one year on Senior High School squad; Bob Williams, experienced one year on Junior High School squad; John Garno, experienced one year on Junior High School squad; Meredith Davis, experienced one year on Junior High School squad.

Raymond H. Rubrake has shown his ability in coaching and managing golf teams for the past several years. This season he assembled one of the largest and most complete schedules any local high school golf team has ever enjoyed.

The 1936 schedule is as follows:

Saturday, April 25—Upper Sandusky (lost)

Monday, April 28—Maumee (here) (tie)

Saturday, May 2—Findlay (lost)

Tuesday, May 5—Maumee (lost)

THE HI-ECHO STAFF

First Row—Wolfe, Hill, Slater, Holt, Bates, Munn, Carmichael, Frowine, Naugle
 Second Row—Koons, English, Ordway, Phillips, Gibson, Ward, Carr, Beck, Clark, Aeschliman
 Third Row—Maas, Lowell, Sanders, Uhlman, Ruth, Burkhalter, Chamberlain
 Fourth Row—Gerding, Vermilya, Angerman, Rothe, Siebens, Bell

Every year each Senior class tries to put out the best year-book possible, and this year was no exception. The staff has worked hard and endeavored to make this Hi-Echo set a high standard. Allen Siebens won the position of editor and Jack Angerman that of business manager by competitive examination. As usual there were many problems to be dealt with, especially that of financing the book, but these have been solved to a great extent. Subscriptions did not come in very fast until the whole Senior class made a concentrated drive. Special attention should be given to the art work, which is under the direction of Rachel Phillips. The statuettes were modeled by Rachel and her assistants, LaVaun Ordway and Fawney Koontz. Harry Burkhalter made the letters which named the various divisions of the book. Having completed our task, the staff hopes that you will enjoy to the utmost the 1936 edition of the Hi-Echo.

THE SCARLET PARROT STAFF

First Row—Munn, Holt, Bates, Stevens, Wolf, Petty, Foos
 Second Row—Siebens, Rothe, Maas, Dunipace, Slater, Bell

For many years our high school has been proud of its school paper, and this year was no exception. The Scarlet Parrot was published regularly every two weeks. Several times the Scarlet Parrot was the first Bowling Green paper to publish certain news and accounts of evening sports events were published in the paper the next morning. The class had a definite working policy, with a semi-professional attitude, because the members of the staff realized the financial responsibility. The publishing of the paper depends entirely on sales and advertisements. The paper co-operated with the other school organizations and its editorials always advised maintaining the right school attitudes and doing everything to improve the school in general. In order to be on the staff a pupil must have at least a "B" average, and be able to work independently, because the class is like the regular staff of a newspaper, with the responsibility resting on the editor and business manager. This year three different pupils were editors. Allen Siebens, Bill Rothe, and Irma Stevens were all editors at different times. Irma Stevens was the first girl editor in seven years. The staff took field trips to the two newspapers here and the Toledo Blade. Allen Siebens, Bill Bothe, Don Bell, and Jack Angerman attended the Journalism Conference at Columbus this year, representing the staff. Mr. Mercer is the adviser to the staff.

THE HONOR SOCIETY

First Row—English, Holt, Munn, Bates, Carr, Tyson
 Second Row—Lowell, Phillips, Gibson, Ward, Wilke
 Third Row—Chamberlain, Rothe, Siebens, Angerman

The Bowling Green Honor Society is chosen yearly from the graduating class. The candidates for election to the society consist of the upper third of the class in regard to scholarship. The faculty chose fifteen students from this group to be initiated into the society, basing their judgment upon scholarship, character, leadership, and service, the ideals of the high school.

An impressive ritual was written and adopted by the faculty and the initiation was held in the cafeteria on April 16. The room was beautifully decorated with two candelabra burning against hangings of red silk on which were the words scholarship, character, leadership, and service. The emblem of the society which had been skillfully made by Mr. Swigart was one of the chief points of decoration. The music was furnished and the initiation ritual conducted by the charter members of the society. Dr. H. B. Williams, President of Bowling Green State University, gave a masterful address upon the responsibilities that accompany honor.

The members were given many enjoyable privileges; they were exempted from all final examinations and they were given great freedom in the use of library permits. Officers elected by the society were Allen Siebens, President; Margaret Munn, Vice-President; and Mary Louise Gibson, Secretary-Treasurer.

HI-Y CLUB

First Row—Bowers, Uhlman, Simonds, Hamblin, Chamberlain, Austin
 Second Row—Ladd, Patterson, Ames, Leggett, Lowell, Gerding, Ziegler
 Third Row—Rode, Smith, Shelton, Ruth, Rothe, Amos, Williams
 Fourth Row—Bell, Angerman, Siebens, Sheffler, Wilke, Vermilya, Gernert

Foremost among those organizations of Bowling Green High School which have projects of real value to our school itself is the Hi-Y Club. During the year the club carried out its various activities which have aided our school in many ways. The bookstore was opened at the beginning of the year and made it easy for many students to obtain second-hand books. In the fall a large group of boys were initiated, and the club held its yearly picnic.

At the Fostoria football game and the DeVilbiss and Waite basketball games programs were sold. Don Bell and Jack Angerman were largely responsible for the publishing of these splendid programs. The club established a free check-room and also furnished ushers for the basketball games. The Hi-Y all-school dance always a big event, was given in January, and was very successful.

Delegates from the club attended the State convention at Tiffin, and also the district meeting in Toledo. Richard Amos, Quentin Bowers, Paul Ladd, Bill Rothe and Allen Siebens were the delegates to the State convention. The officers of the club are Bill Rothe, president; James Sheffler, vice-president; and Paul Ladd, secretary-treasurer. Mr. L. O. Wilhite and Dr. Robert Whipple are the club sponsors.

THE BAND

Left to Right—Wm. Ruth, Clyde McKenzie, Richard Amos, Richard Green, Robert Brim, Jim Stitt, Robert Bowers, Robert Gerding, Mary Frances Church, Kenneth Harger, Mary Jean Priess, Marvin Gallier, John Conklin, Jack DeMuth, June Kieffer, Eugene Leathers, Vernon Lane, Noah Knepper, Junior Beckly, Louis Canen, Leo Kuns, Junior Ash, Miriam Petty, Owen Hughes, Walter McConnel, Joe Clague, Robert Hunter, Don Kinninger, Barbara Avery, Franklin Boosenbark, Dwight Cross, Jim Curry, Jim Hunter, Esther Hedburg, Alan Richards

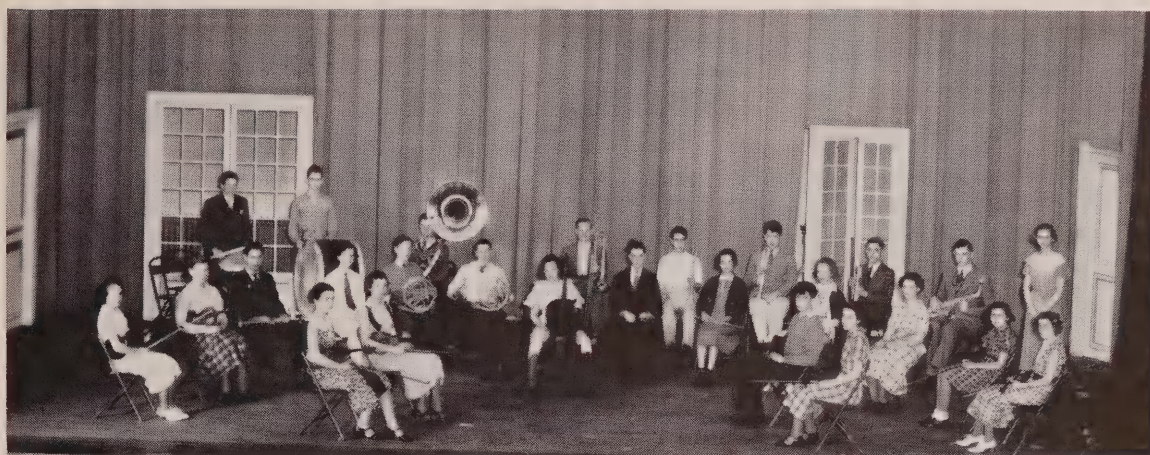

Under the direction of Winchester Richard, the band was a valuable asset to the school. This year a newcomer, Jim Falls, was the drum major, and his baton twirling was a major attraction at the football and basketball games. The band played at all these athletic contests, at pep meetings, and presented a series of concerts.

The main accomplishment of the band this year was its fine showing in the sectional and state contests. Last year the band did not do so well at the district contest, but this year's band received a superior rating of one, and went to the state contest at Columbus with Fostoria. Here they received ratings of four, two, and two, by the three judges, and a rating of three in sight reading, a thing which none of the band members had ever done before in a contest. However, the band once again tied with Fostoria for third place in the state, as there was no second place because of ties, although the B. G. band outpointed Fostoria.

April 28 the Band Mothers' club gave their banquet to the band, and eight letters were presented to Seniors who had earned them. Mr. Walter Sells, conductor of the Fremont band, was the speaker, and he brought his first trombonist, Jack Stierwalt, with him. Jack is the state champion and ranked very high in the national contest.

The band gave one more concert before the school year was finished. This concert climaxed a drive to get funds for new band uniforms.

THE ORCHESTRA

Left to Right—Betty Hunter, Richard Green, June Kieffer, Gerald Gustin, Hilda Foos, Mary Frances Church, Arthur Siebens, Kenneth Harger, Mary Jean Priess, Eugene Leathers, Noah Knepper, Clyde McKenzie, Marjorie Sutter, Walter McConnel, Marvin Gallier, Robert Hunter, Rachel Phillips, Miriam Petty, Lillian Ruedy, Jim Hunter, Owen Hughes, Alan Richards, Dorothea Reams

Among the musical organizations in Bowling Green High School the orchestra is very valuable. Besides being a means of instruction and experience to many musicians, it is a body which can be called upon at any time to provide music for a program.

The orchestra played at most of our assembly programs, and also played at several joint Parent-Teacher Association meetings. When the Dramatic Guild presented their plays, the orchestra also entertained the students.

Although they did not enter the orchestra contest at Bowling Green University, the members practiced diligently under the direction of Mr. W. H. Richard, and deserve commendation for their work.

THE CHORUS

First Row—Hill, Loomis, Greer, Miller, Jewell, Simonds, Brown, Mercer, Roebke, Kidd, Staylor
 Second Row—Frowine, Phillips, Ireland, Shuler, Porter, K. Kidd, Lowell, Wolf, Cook, Stevens, Stewart

Third Row—Plowright, Katzenbarger, Beck, Hankey, Johnston, Digby, Slater, Leggett, Bowers, White, Naugle, Munn

Fourth Row—Waugh, Lindower, Sams, Ash, McKnight, Porter, Spitler, Ladd, Sanford, Johnson

Fifth Row—Slater, Wilson, Klopfenstein, Siebens, Warren, MacElhane, Beck

Sixth Row—Maas, Stacy, Patterson, Alexander, Ridgeway, Bell, Rothe, Hindley, Woodbury, Matheny

This year the chorus, under the direction of Mr. R. V. Hilty, brought new honors to our high school. The group of singers participated in the sectional contest for high school choruses at Bluffton, and received a rating of two, which means excellent. This rating gave them second place and qualified the chorus to enter the state contest at Columbus.

Here they came through in fine style, receiving ratings of one, one, and three from the judges, giving them second place again. This illustrates the type of work which is done, and much credit is due the group and Mr. Hilty. This year, because the auditorium was being re-decorated, the chorus was unable to present an operetta, which is always a fine performance, and the school was keenly disappointed.

The operetta chosen was "The Gypsy Rover," and the group practiced for about a month before it had to be discontinued. During the year the chorus was composed of about sixty-five members, and rehearsals were held twice a week. In December the group presented a fine Christmas program in an assembly.

THE DRAMATIC GUILD

First Row—Ordway, Fetzer, English, Jewell, Avery, Arnold, Mercer, Hoffheins, Bates
Second Row—Tyson, Stevens, West, Warren, Frowine, Wolf, Munn, B. Slater, Carr
Third Row—Phillips, Waugh, Lehmann, Woods, Rothrock, Gibson, Clark, Cook, Rood
Fourth Row—Britt, Dunipace, Porter, Leggett, Lowell, Hunter, R. Slater, Bowers
Fifth Row—Angerman, Ruth, Sanders, Rothe, Maas, Gerding

For several years there has been no dramatics organization in Bowling Green High School, and the Senior play was the only dramatic presentation given during the year. But this year a dramatics club was organized, and took the name Dramatics Guild.

During the first semester two plays were presented. "While the Toast Burned," directed by Mary Louise Gibson, and "More Blessed," a Christmas play, directed by Margaret West, were very successful, and were given in the assemblies.

Play production was only one activity of the club. At its monthly meetings, skits or pantomimes were put on and a speaker was obtained for each meeting. Mr. Ivan Lake, Mr. L. E. Angene, and Miss LeVier were among those who talked on the relationship of dramatics to their particular fields or experiences. The club elected Bob Gerding, president; Mildred Wolfe, vice-president; and Dorothy Rothrock, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Skibbie is the club sponsor.

THE HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

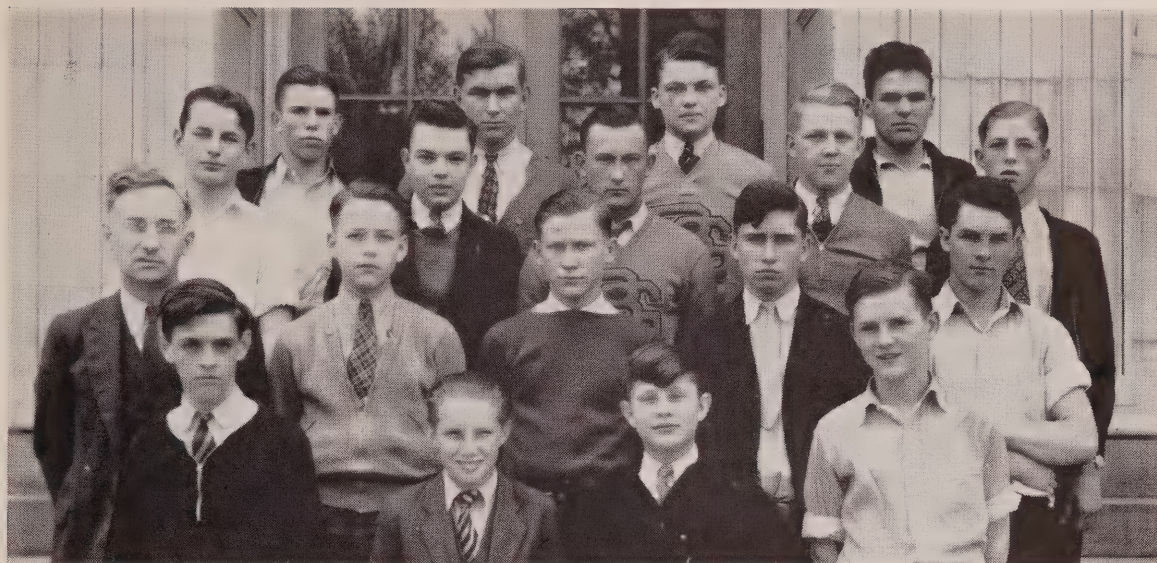

First Row—Ellen Jane Kramp, Helen Sweet, Helen Mariner, Rosabelle DeVolder, Margaret Hill
 Second Row—Joyce Johnson, Bonna Jean Wilcox, Rosemary Konopka, Madelyn Ball, Barbara Slater
 Top Row—Wilma Holt, Glendora Woods

The Home Economics Club is an organization for girls who are interested in this particular field and its social connections, and is a chapter of the National Home Economics Club. Almost all the members of the club attended the sectional conference at the Toledo University, and Glendora Woods was their delegate to the state conference at Columbus.

At the meetings of the club various speakers talked and gave demonstrations. The most important activities of the club are the May Day breakfast, and the exhibit of Kentucky Home-spuns and the tea which is given with the exhibit. When the Home Economics club at the University gave their annual dance, the officers of the high school organization were invited, showing the fine spirit of cooperation which exists between this club and the one at the University.

Another important event of the club is the initiation for new girls which is given at the beginning of the year. The club elected the following officers: President, Glendora Woods; Vice-President, Wilma Holt; Secretary, Helen Tyson; and Treasurer, Helen Sweet. Miss Klepinger is the club sponsor.

THE FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

First Row—Heinze, Hoffheins, Brown, Blair
Second Row—Mr. Alexander, Conklin, Buchman, Siders, V. Blair
Third Row—Lein, Smith, T. Buchman, Vermilya, Haskins
Fourth Row—Shelton, Johnston, Carter, LeBay

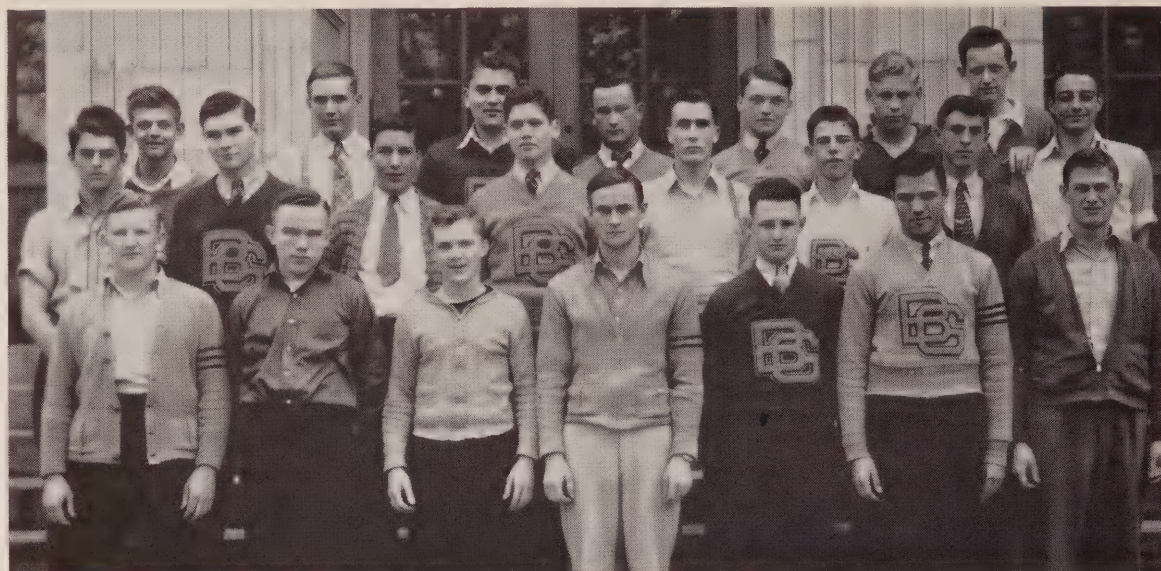

One of the few vocational organizations in our high school is the F. F. A., sponsored by Mr. Alexander. This club gives vocational aid to its members through the many and varied activities in which it engages.

There are two programs, known as long-time and short-time programs, which the club has. In the long-time program, the members try to build up their vocational agriculture department by taking in new members. Also they endeavor to build up corn growing in Wood county.

In the short-time program the boys help with the corn husking contest, have a candy booth there, and participate in a contest for F. F. A. boys. During the year the club had two banquets; one for their parents, and one for the Eighth Grade boys who are going to join the club.

Delegates from the F. F. A. attended the convention at Ohio State University, and also the dairy cattle judging contest at the Toledo State Hospital. John Vermilya was the club's representative in the public speaking contest at Liberty Center. His subject was "The Conservation of Our Natural Resources." Vernon Blair was elected president; Jerry Carter, vice-president; John Vermilya, secretary, and Fred Haskins, treasurer.

VARSITY LETTERMEN'S CLUB

First Row—Sams, Uhlman, Simonds, Sheffler, Lowell, Amos, Wallace
 Second Row—Stacy, Grames, Echle, Rothe, Siebens, Wilke, Gernert, Smith
 Third Row—Hickle, Lahey, Bell, Buchman, Carter, Yoder, Maas

This year a new club was founded—the Varsity Lettermen's club. It was composed of those boys who had won letters in a major sport. This organization is sponsored by Coach Hamm, and is the first of its kind in Bowling Green High School. The main purpose of the club is to further good sportsmanship and in order to express this idea letters were written to various schools on the athletic schedules.

The lettermen are encouraged to maintain high scholastic averages. The club wrote letters of congratulations to a few schools that won the district basketball tournaments and went to Columbus. The members also endeavor to encourage other school activities, and these various projects are discussed at their monthly meetings. The following officers were elected: Richard Amos, President; Edward Wallace, Vice-President; Tom Buchman, Secretary; Richard Sams, Treasurer, and Richard Wilke, Reporter.

G. A. A.

First Row—Carmichael, Chamberlain, DeVolder, Carr, Cooper, Bresler, Tavenier, Arnold, Avery, Stevens, Bates, Cook
 Second Row—Echle, Miner, McCreary, Aeschliman, Beck, Clingo, Wittenmyer, Anderson, MacElhane, Carr, McKnight

 Fourth Row—Dority, Hanna, English, Lindower, Gibson, West, Onofrio, Naugle, Dickey, English
 Fifth Row—Harkey, Johnston, Waugh, Lehmann, Wilson, Clark, Johnson, Long, Katzenbarger, Rothrock, Johnson
 Sixth Row—White, Coss, Wickham, Her, Warren, Mercer, Huston, Graf, Sweet, Dick, Woods

The Girls' Athletic Association has always been one of the outstanding organizations for girls in Bowling Green High School. Besides its activities in our own school, other schools have been invited to come here and participate in games with the teams of the G. A. A.

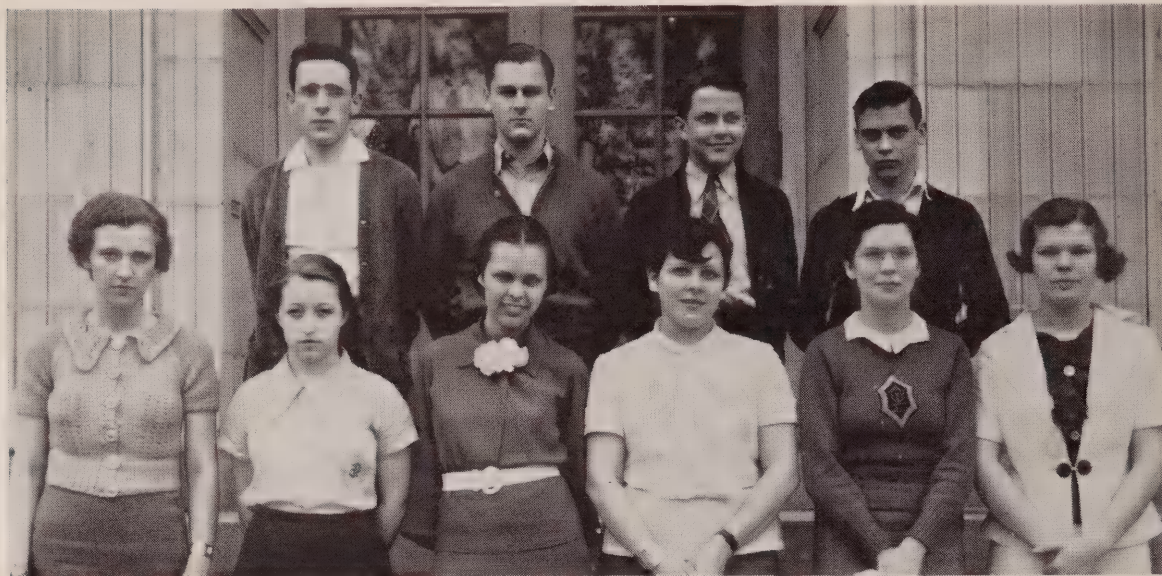

December 14, the club sponsored a Sports Day here and the volleyball teams of Findlay, Napoleon, and the University were invited. Afterwards a Christmas tea was given for the visitors in the cafeteria.

The G. A. A. dance, an important event on the social calendar, was also given in December. Among the most important of the spring activities was the annual banquet at which shields were awarded to those girls who had earned seven hundred points by participating in the various games.

Most of the club's meetings are of a business nature, but on several occasions speakers were present to address the members.

The Athletic board is composed of Nellie Wittenmyer, president; Mary Louise Gibson, vice-president; Anna Laura Beck, secretary-Treasurer; Clarabelle Long, chairman for basketball; Madeline Warren for baseball; Doris Clingo for volleyball; and Catherine Echle for outings. Miss Ruh is the faculty sponsor of the G. A. A.

THE ART CLUB

First Row—Holt, Koons, Ordway, Sanford, Munn, Phillips
Second Row—Ruth, Leggett, Burkhalter, Porter

Among the clubs of our high school whose activities deal with craftsmanship, the Art club is outstanding. Every year a different project is undertaken. This year's project was art metalcraft. The club met weekly with Miss LeVier, the club sponsor, and the members made various useful and decorative articles of silver, copper, and other metals. Most of the members made jewelry such as rings and bracelets, but many paper knives, bookends, trays, pins, ash trays, identification bracelets, handbag tags, and statuettes were also made. The different processes of metal working were taught by Miss LeVier, and a general knowledge of metalcraft was acquired by the members.

Several members of the Art club were also active in making puppets and were members of the Puppet club of the Junior High School. LeVaun Ordway was elected president of this organization during the year. The club presented the courtroom scene from "The Merchant of Venice" which was a very successful show.

Special mention should be made of the fact that four members of the Art club worked on the Art Staff of this yearbook. They were: Rachel Phillips, Fawney Koontz, LeVaun Ordway, and Harry Burkhalter.

STATION B. G. H. S. PRESENTS

In this age of radio the editors of the feature section think it appropriate to give you their ideas of how the people in our school would fit into a typical program put on any day of the week by a representative broadcasting station.

There isn't space to offer suggestions of all the sorts of radio talent we possess, but in the cuttings from programs put on the air by Station B. G. H. S. in the following pages, you will recognize many of your friends we hope.

You may find some bits of this section rather puzzling, but what radio broadcast isn't?

Editorial Note: After reading the many "heh heh heh's" interspersed in the elements of this program, we conclude that something at the station must have gone "heywire."

HI ECHO

"RISE AND SHINE"

7:15 a. m.

Announcer: At this time we present to you Miss Kay Ruh who brings to you her daily morning sermon on "Keeping Fit"—take it away, Miss Ruh.

Miss Ruh: This morning, accompanied by Miss Donna Carr on the zither who will play "The Music Goes Round and Round" we will resume our exercise if you will kindly unbend from yesterday's position. This morning, as a bracer upper, we shall do the following exercise: At the count of one, raise your right hand, solemnly swear that you'll tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you. At the count of two grab the nearest infant and raise your arm swiftly up and down without bending the elbow, thus exercising the brat and at the same time producing that good old muscle on that good old right arm. Ready: one, two, one, two,—who—who—oh—oh—oh—oho—oh—and we sign off here.

UNCLE ABE

9:30 a. m.

At the blare of the trumpets it will be about 9:31 and 5/10 seconds. At this time, all you little kiddies, cluster about your radios and your Uncle Abe will read the funnies to you. Enter Abe.—Hello kiddies (Putting arms around microphone) How are you all today? Last week we left Uncle Wigley (Organ) penned in his tree house by Volpone the fox (Devlin) and I'll bet you can't guess how he escapes. Well, sir, along comes a wild boresey woresey (Hamm) who thinks to himself, here's where I add a few razors to my back and so-o-o-o-o, little kiddies, we leave the boresey woresey chasing Volpone the fox and Uncle Wigley now can go to the store to get the molasses to give Jimmie Ford as an antidote for the spring weather. So if the button sews itself on Pratt's skirt and the thimble gets lost in Cook's hair, we'll find Uncle Wigley hunting books in his room to give back to their owners next week, and all you kiddies, don't forget to get your tardy excuses from the Isca Maysea business firm, and until next week toodle-ooo.

BURN 'EM UP BOWERS

2:00 p. m.

Announcer: And now we've come to the program you've been waiting for, my little friends. Every day I receive millions of letters from girls and boys asking how they may become strong and healthy like "Burn-em up" Bowers. If you'll listen closely and promise not to tell—now promise—I'll tell you the secret. Are you ready? Here it is! Eat a big dishpan full of delicious crispy crunchy Weedies flavored with milk and sugar or just milk if you haven't any sugar, and if you haven't any milk use any other good mixer and now what we've all been waiting for. You remember when yesterday's episode closed, Burn-em-up had just entered the haunted house in search of Annie Laurie who had been carried away by the arch-villian, that wolf-in-sheep's clothing, that nasty man, Hank Stump. Remember to listen closely at the end of the program for that important announcement and now here we go:

"Burn-em-up": Gee, this is a funny house.

(A blood-curdling scream is heard)

Gosh, maybe I better go home.

Announcer: Oh, no, you don't, kid, remember you're getting paid 28c per hr. for this job.

B. Gimme 30c or I quit right here.

A. 26c.

B. 29c.

A. It's your for 27c, now come on.

B. Gee, it hardly seems worth it—it's only a 15-minute program, but O.K. Is this a buzz-saw that I see before me? And there is that arch fiend, Henry Stump, by the switch. My goodness there's my Annie tied to it. Unhandle her you naughty boy.

Hank. Heh, heh, heh. Stick-em-up-Bowers. There's really ammunition in this pea shooter. One-false move and I'll blow you to bits. Now, onto the buzz-saw. That's right (heh, heh, heh,) And, now I'm pulling the switch.

Buzz Saw: Z Z Z Z Z Z Z Z

A: Alas, what's to happen now? Will our own little Annie Laurie and our staunch friend, "Burn-em-up" be ground into hamburg to be eaten and paid for Tuesday? Who will save them? We'll see tomorrow and now for the big surprise. Who ever gets the most words out of Weedies, spelled WEEDIES, will receive a solid gold pin filled with lead and plated with wood—absolutely free. Send the list of words and only $2.49, coin or stamps, the cost of packing, and mail it now. Toodle-oo folks.

PERSONALITIES:

3:00 p. m.

Announcer: And now folks, the most interesting program of the week, PERSONALITIES, brought to you by the makers of Roll Your Own Cigarettes. For carefully blended tobaccos and finer flavor, there's nothing like Roll Your Own. So there! and now for the personalities

1. Margaret Pratt—Torch singer and Dean of women at Sing Sing University. Her favorite likes and dislikes are pets like Plymouths, dogs, horses, trained fleas and Reynold Brown. She is greatly interested in athletics and in a recent interview, Miss Pratt declared, "Once I almost drove ten miles in fifteen seconds but my car wouldn't start, so here I am, the most popular girl in Sing Sing U."
2. John Devlin—Famous scholar and Dean of Murphy's Iron Works. In a special to a newsboy on the corner of Main and Court Sts. he once said, "Here's two cents, I'll take one."
3. John Halleck—Famed author of "Two Nights on a Barroom Floor" or "Gosh, What Hit Me?" Although usually unwilling to be interviewed because of his shy and bashful nature, he has been quoted, "Let's all have one on me just this once, boys."
4. Marguerite Aeschliman—Beautiful cinema star, recently appearing in "That's No Lady, That's My Wife" or "Gosh, That's an Old One", when questioned concerning the rumor about her receiving an anonymous letter from Fred Chamberlain, "Of course, there's nothing to it—we're just good friends, that's all."
5. Susan Frowine—Star equestrienne and blond bareback rider of Sicken's Collosal Three-Ring Circus. While falling off one of the horses, she is said to have announced "Gee, I'm falling."
6. Don Bell—Beloved poet and author. He is also an architect of no mean talent and has designed some beautiful fish bowls. Don says, "I don't care if she don't love me, but she's got to have class."

BUCK ROGERS

4:00 p. m.

How have you been feeling lately? Are your arches fallen and do your molars tickle? Well, then it's time you try Stout's MgS04 and we guarantee that if you succumb your relatives will be sent full signed packages absolutely free with 5 covers from the boxes, wrapping paper, stamps, and one dime to cover expenses. And now we bring you Buck (Dunipace) and Wilma (Holt) arguing ferociously with their parents to let them take a trip to Janus. Wilma now has her permission and is talking to Buck.

B—Naw, I can't go—maw won't let me 'cause I didn't whitewash the back fence.

W—Well, that's a shame, but fear not, I'll not look at a single other man on Janus and I'll write you every hour.

So, my friends of the radio audience, we leave Buck and Wilma until next week at this time and don't forget to keep yourselves fit by taking Stout's wonderful new discovery, MgS04.

Did you know of the great throw-a-way sale at Sammy Goldstien's haberdashery? Tomorrow it begins and lasts indefinitely. You young men, here's your chance to get your Jr.-Sr. outfit at great reductions. An example is any color, sportback, burlap twill weave, suit with topcoat to contrast for $13.98, extra pants $1.95. Don't forget to come to Sammy's

7:00 p. m.

Good Evening everybody, this is Broke Carter bringing you the latest news through the courtesy of C. Moore Optical Company. There is no need for your not seeing in the dark any more with our Tiptop Devisable Trifocal lenses at the new price of $3.50. Come in and see the Doc. Italy made a new drive today through Ethiopia and Il Duce likes it very well. He is even thinking of bombing around tomorrow but then we all know that Italian balm is good for things, so we leave Ethiopia to visit Southwick (Northtwine) and his harem in Istambul but we learn that he is in a sad state of affairs as someone kidnapped his harem. We suspect Gerding and Lowell as they have fiendish gleams in their eyes. Jerry Craft is now showing his great invention to all Physics students. When you place your books on your desk over a secret button you can now feel assured that they will not be misled, as a bell rings every time they are moved. In this way the culprit can be caught and the teacher hates to hold classes because of the ringing of bells. It is thought that he is now trying to invent a silent bell to do away with this unnecessary noise. We're with you, Jerry. ABC has finally caught the culprits who persisted in using the women's faculty room for a smoker. For particulars, write to this station. Thank you. Don't forget to see Moore.

AMATEUR HOUR

9:00 p. m.

Announcer: And now, folks, we bring to you the Hulova Amateur Hour presented to you through the courtesy of the Hulova Watch Co. Hulova Watches, you know, are presented by the Warden of the Bide-a-Wee Prison to each prisoner who enters to do his "time." Heh, heh, heh, I must have my little joke, folks. The first prisoner, ah-er-a, amateur on tonight's program is none other than that sweet little lady with those gorgeous blue eyes, Miss Miriam Petty. Step up this way, Toots—And, what have you to offer us tonight? Oh—you just came up to see what was going on! Well, I'll meet you outside the door later. All right! All right! All right!

The next amateur will be Miss Sara Louise Anderson who will—what were you going to do, Miss Anderson? Make a speech on conditions of the employees at the Four Corner Stand? I'm sorry—you must be in the wrong studio, Miss Anderson. Scram!

Well, the next amateur is none other than, none other than—this is a great surprise for you, folks, none other than the great—wh, what did you say your name was, young man? Ah, Mr. Regis Echle, who will, uh-er-a what were you going to favor us with? A discourse in favor of prohibition? Why-a-Mr. Echle, I-uh-don't understand. What-what-WHAT? Well, well, folks, heh-heh-heh-heh, the joke's on me this time-uh-heh-heh. This is the wrong time for that unequaled amateur hour brought to you by the Hulova Watch Co., the great little company that makes those wonderful dated watches and at this time—. Bang! Heh, heh, heh.

THE MARCH OF YOUTH

9:30 p. m.

Fifteen new candidates were taken into the Honor Society recently. They represent the cream of the '36 crop. They are Angerman, Bates, Carr, Chamberlain, English, Gibson, Holt, Lowell, Munn, Phillips, Rothe, Siebens, Tyson, Ward and Wilke. Let's give them a hand. B. G. H. S. has been very well represented by the Bobcats, and the B. G. Fighting Band at Columbus. Well, we got there just the same. At this time we bring you the winners of the last walkaround contest. Ed Wallace and Betty Kramer lost out this year on accounts—because the latter doesn't go here no more, only excepting some afternoons at 2:30 so in their place we elect Joe and Sarah. Congratulations. And now who is going to take this away from them? You know that the winners always wear Ball Band shoes so hurry and get yours as there is a limited supply. Youth Marches on. Twelve suicides and three attempts were made recently by Seniors who failed to understand Chaucer and the books on the reading list assigned by Miss Waugh. Is youth getting dumber or have the books always been too deep? Lloyd Shelton shocked the Civics class on Tuesday, May 1, (?) by handing in a daily paper. A double catastrophe happened that day as Rothe walked into registration before the tardy bell. He must have had an argument with Barbara. Love is that way, Bill. Tomorrow evening at this same time we will again bring you the March of Youth. Good night. Youth Marches On!

"JURY TRIALS"

10:00 p. m.

Announcer: And now, through the courtesy of the United Association of the Brothern and Sistern of Knights of the Garter, we bring to you, etc. famous "Jury Trials." Judge Jerusha Jeremiah Craft is just taking the stand. Let's go, Judge.

Judge: Order, order. What's the first case on the docket, boy? Well, little girl, what seems to be the trouble?

Margaret West: Well, judgie, wudgie, I want a divorce from my husband on the grounds of desertion, excessive drinking, mental cruelty, incompatibility and absolute inability to cook, sew, keep house, mind the baby or balance the matron's budget like he said he could, the big bully.

Southwick: But, judge, I——.

Judge: Is this true? Answer my question.

Southwick: But, judge? I——.

Judge: Shut up! And now little girl——.

M. West: Yes, and what's more I caught him with another woman yesterday.

Judge: What's that? Another woman?

M. West: Yes, he took his mother to the baseball game, and then he bet me a quarter that I couldn't get a divorce. Isn't that too, too cruel?

Southwick: But, judge, I——.

Judge: Shut up you! Honey, you come to the right place, pay her that quarter, big boy. We're stepping out to lunch. Also, there'll be a small item of $1,000,000 a year alimony. Come on, baby.

Southwick: But judge, I——.

Announcer: Shut up! and so Judge Craft carries out justice to the 'inth degree. And now "justice" second till our next program—heh, heh, heh,—.

"VOICE OF EXPERIENCE"

12:00 p. m.

Announcer: And now, everybody, we bring to you the most popular program on the air, Waldo Shawacker, the Voice of Experience; presented by the makers of that good old Goo Hair Tonic scented with that delicate perfume derived through extensive and expensive refining from skunk-cabbage picked in the prime of its old age and grown expecially for that purpose. Remember, "Even babies say "goo," and so should you." And now, the Voice of Experience. Here he is—

Voice of Exp.: Yes, folks, here I am. Heh, heh, heh. And now for the first letter. Here it is:

Dear Voice of Experience: Listen, you big pain in the neck, if you think I'm going to sit at home all day and listen to you mind other people's business, you're crazy. I'm sick of hearing your silly prattle while the dirty dishes are lying in the sink, the rugs need beating, and the baby is crying. As a matter of fact, I think I'll come up and give you a little experience in minding your own business for a change.

Your loving wife, Harriet.

Well, ah, yes. Harriet the dear soul, must have her little joke, heh, heh, heh, heh. Pardon me, there seems to be a slight disturbance—excuse me, folks.

Bang, Zowie, Ouch, etc.

Announcer: Due to concussion of the brain, a broken arm, loss of teeth and a few other injuries, I fear that we must discontinue this program for possibly six months, but remember for a reliable hair tonic, chicken feed, axle grease or salad dressing, ask for Goo everytime, Abbysinia.

JOKES

Do you have any children, Mr. Jones?

Yes, three daughters.

Do they live at home with you?

No, they're not married yet.

Was there a large crowd at the Purity?

Not under our table.

Conklin: The best thing you can do is give up cigarettes, poor liquor, and women.

Wallace: What's the next best thing?

Kitchenettie: Why did you marry such a homely man?

Humidoracas: He asked me, dearie.

"Give this little girl a great big hand", said the cannibal's daughter as he was serving dinner.

What's the charge officer?

Fragrancy, your honor. He's been drinking perfume.

Cop (taking out his notebook) Hummm, speeding hey, what's your name.

Sailor: Dimitrijevic.

Cop (putting it away) Well, don't let me catch you again.

Mamma: Pa, Charlie has been a very bad boy today. I wish you'd say something to him.

Poppa: Hello, Charlie.

Goodbye, I've had a wonderful time at your party.

You don't say so!

Oh Yes, I do—always.

Did you make the debating team?

N-n-no. They s-s-s-said I w-w-wasn't t-t-tall enough.

Helen English was left to fix lunch and when mother returned—Did you find the lost strainer for the tea? No, I didn't find it so I used the fly swatter. Mother nearly swooned so Helen added—don't get excited, mother, I used the old one.

Division Officer: Put some elevation on that gun.

Gerding: Which way, sir, right or left?

Margarite: Oh, good! you've asked father.

Fred: No, dear, I've just been in a motor smash.

Russel Smith: Your dog seem's very fond of watching you cut hair.

Leo Lake: It ain't that; sometimes I snip off a bit of a customer's ear.

Dick: Leggett is certainly a brilliant man. I'll bet he knows just about everything.

Bates: Don't kid yourself. He doesn't even suspect.

JUNIOR SENIOR PROM

Promptly at eight p. m. Friday evening, May 22, Sophomore footmen, dressed in beautiful white garments with colored Hawaiian leis, greeted the Juniors and Seniors as they entered a social paradise, the Lei Haka. As the guests ascended the stairs, they heard a steel stringed orchestra playing and strumming from a bower of ferns and flowers.

A welcoming group of Juniors met the guests in the lobby.

As the guests entered the dancing pavilion which was fitted with decorations and appointments to create the languor of the beach at Wai-Ki-Ki, welcoming hosts garlanded their shoulders with genuine Hawaiian leis imported especially for this festal occasion.

Before them they found the balmy and delightfully colored Hawaiian atmosphere spilling over with surprises. Immediately the guests surrendered to its spell. An avenue of gorgeous palm trees formed an arched corridor through which the grand march proceeded. The palm embowered way opened into a delightful vista in which Paul Wheeler's orchestra played "Alaho Oe" and other dreamily romantic melodies which charmed the guests into the bewitching spell of the atmosphere. The orchestra was seated before a jet black velour hanging which was flanked by stately white palms that contrasted effectively with the ground plantings of scarlet peonies.

The walls of the ball room were decorated with delicate blue murals picturing the glamour of an Hawaiian nightclub. From afar the murals seemed to be boarded with white designs, but upon near approach the designs were found to be informative legends describing the alluring delights of life on this island.

From a distant sky a large, enchanting moon shone on the palm trees which reflected a glimmering light and cast shadows upon the dancers. Indirect lighting from the murals cast soft lights over the entire room.

At intervals punch was served by the assisting Sophomores.

During the latter part of the evening Erica Ransome entertained the guests with an exclusive floorshow of six numbers.

As the evening closed a chorus composed of thirty-eight Sophomore voices bid the visitors "farewell" with the haunting strains of the beautiful melody "Alaho-Oe", the Hawaiian theme song.

THE HI-Y BALLOON DANCE

To begin the new year, the Hi-Y club sponsored its annual all-school hop on Friday evening, January 24, in the high school gymnasium.

The gym was beautifully decorated for dancing with many colorful balloons suspended from the ceiling. These balloons provided the feature dance of the evening.

Professional entertainers from the State University performed tumbling and gymnastic acts, including several comical stooge acts, for the guests.

At the close of the evening's festivity the balloons were released and let to drop among the dancers. Prizes were awarded to the persons who held certain lucky balloons.

Bert Frost and his mechanical band furnished music for the evening's entertainment.

THE GREY GRIFFIN

A high school magazine was published this year for the first time and was a complete success. One issue was published during the year, and every copy was sold at ten cents. The magazine was composed of poems and short stories contributed by students. The publication was sponsored by the English department, Miss Waugh, Mr. Angene, and Miss Mercer. Mr. Mercer supervised the publishing of the Grey Griffin.
